

If You and Your Children Are in a Temporary Living Situation, Your Children Have the Right To...

- Stay in the school of origin or choose the attendance area school where you are moving
- Receive transportation to and from your school of origin
- Immediately enroll in school, with or without school or health records
- Get free lunch and school fee waivers

You and your children are eligible for these rights if you...

- Share housing with others because of loss of housing, economic need or domestic violence
- Live in a shelter or motel
- Live in a campground, park, car or abandoned building
- Are without a permanent address
