Dear Parents and Guardians,

At this time, school is scheduled to be in session tomorrow. However, we are closely monitoring the weather conditions and forecasts for possible changes overnight.

The safety of our students and staff remains our top priority. If conditions worsen and it becomes necessary to cancel or delay school, we will make that decision early in the morning and notify families as soon as possible through our usual communication channels (email, text, website, and social media).

Thank you for your understanding and cooperation as we keep an eye on the weather. Please stay tuned for updates in the morning.

Sincerely,
